

Ceren Temel, a versatile jazz singer, composer, and educator, blends her diverse musical background with a passion for jazz. She has earned acclaim, winning top prizes in renowned competitions and performing with esteemed orchestras in Turkey.

She taught jazz vocal lessons at Hacettepe University Ankara State Conservatory after her graduation. She now pursues a doctorate in jazz performance at Istanbul University while also teaching at Kadir Has University.

Her debut EP, "The Rewind," reflects her journey of self-discovery through jazz. Collaborating with a spoken-word artist, she advocates for women's rights through improvised vocal music.

Temel's "Loop Project" showcases her innovative approach across genres. She continues to inspire as a lifelong learner in Turkey's jazz scene, emphasizing professionalism and valuing improvisation.